Form 990 is available for public inspection and, for some people, serves as the primary or sole source of information about a particular organization. How the public perceives an organization in such cases may be determined by the information presented on its return. Therefore, please make sure the return is complete and accurate and fully describes, in Part III, the organization's programs and accomplishments.

What is the organization's primary exempt purpose? ► The American Jewish University ("AJU") is the university of tomorrow. Grounded in the here and now, we're also thinking about the future and taking action. At the AJU, we embrace the responsibilities of leadership in the advancement and celebration of the Jewish community. Optimistic about the prospects for a vibrant Jewish community, we continue to add faculty, expand our curriculum and develop innovative academic programs that prepare undergraduate, graduate and rabbinical students for rewarding lives - as leaders in both the Jewish community, in American society and in a variety of professions. Our graduates are making a difference in the world. Our role as a leadership training ground is matched by our commitment to providing the broader community with many substantive educational experiences. Our lectures, symposia, special institutes, classes and a wide array of cultural offerings are enhancing thousands of individuals' understanding of Judaism and expanding their knowledge. All organizations must describe their exempt purpose achievements in a clear and concise manner. State the number of clients served, publications issued, etc. Discuss achievements that are not measurable. (Section 501(c)(3) and (4) organizations and 4947(a)(1) nonexempt charitable trusts must also enter the amount of grants and allocations to others.)	Program Service Expenses (Required for 501(c)(3) and (4) orgs, and 4947(a)(1) trusts, but optional for others.)
a While the AJU takes pride in our history, dating back to our founding in 1947, we are also looking ahead - not only to the exciting possibilities at our American Jewish university, but also to the promise and potential of this nation's millions of Jews. Our think tanks and institutes are finding ways to reach the diverse Jewish communities in this country and are creating programs that are adding meaning and connections to many lives. This is our American Jewish University of today, a University of Judaism for the entire community: college students, graduate students, aspiring rabbis, Jews of every belief, background and branch of Judaism, and non-Jews, as well. We invite you to learn more about our wealth of programs, about how we are making a difference and about how you can make a difference, too. (Grants and allocations $ 2,687,072) If this amount includes foreign grants, check here ► <input type="checkbox"/>	16,969,817
b College of Arts and Sciences. Serious scholarship and innovative curricula place this academic program among the most vibrant in the nation. Thanks to small classes where students can explore their intellectual passions, and professors who are highly regarded in their respective fields, our undergraduate program continues to earn plaudits for a variety of outstanding majors - Bioethics (pre-medical education) - Psychology - Liberal Studies - Business - Literature and Communications - U.S. Public Policy - Jewish Studies - Political Science - Journalism. The university's graduate programs also command considerable attention: Graduate Program in Nonprofit Management. Our MBA and Master of Arts programs are ably training professionals for leadership roles at a variety of cultural, social service, educational and religious institutions. (Grants and allocations $) If this amount includes foreign grants, check here ► <input type="checkbox"/>
c Master of Arts in Jewish Communal Studies. This new program was created to train graduates for positions within the professional leadership of the Jewish communal institutions. Master of Arts in Education. Our master's program in education is well known for the preparation of talented women and men to assume teaching and administrative posts at Jewish schools throughout the country. The program is meeting the ongoing demand for quality teachers in Jewish day schools. The Ziegler School of Rabbinic Studies. This thriving program culminates in the ordination of Conservative rabbis. Established in 1996 as the first independent ordaining institution on the West Coast, it has attracted some of the best and brightest men and women from across the country. (Grants and allocations $) If this amount includes foreign grants, check here ► <input type="checkbox"/>
d AMERICAN JEWISH UNIVERSITY is the site of three exciting think tanks: Whizin Center for the Jewish Future. The Center is involved in several major research programs, including projects that focus on Jewish family life and continuity. Center for Israel Studies. Promoting greater understanding of the history, culture, economy, politics, security considerations and foreign relations of the State of Israel. The CIS focuses on education, media outreach and policy studies/reviews. Sigü Ziering Institute. Exploring the ethical and religious implications of the Holocaust, which impacted our understanding of divinity, humanity, responsibility, identity, and mankind's capacity to do evil. (Grants and allocations $) If this amount includes foreign grants, check here ► <input type="checkbox"/>
